

A GREAT ADMIRER OF LUNG-VITA

Mrs. Ridley Hasn't Had Asthma Since Taking It

RECOMMENDS IT FOR COLD

Does Not Want to be Without It In Her Home

"I have taken Lung-Vita for asthma and I haven't had asthma since I took it," says Mrs. W. S. Ridley, who lives at 1406 Twenty-fifth avenue, south. Mr. Ridley is a prominent grocer and is well known in his section of the city. "And I will say that for colds or coughs it can't be beat. I am a great admirer of Lung-Vita and if I was able I would never be without it."

Colds, coughs, grippes—Lung-Vita will break them up and in addition will tone up your system. And they should be broken up at the beginning because they are sometimes the causes of tuberculosis and pneumonia—the most fatal diseases known.

Lung-Vita is sold by all druggists and dealers.—adv.

OUT OF TOWN NOTES.

PULASKI.

Mr. Harmon James of Chicago, Ill., was brought home sick and is with his uncle, Mr. Billy Sykes. Prof. Waters of Nashville has been giving moving picture shows in the churches here last week. Mrs. Susan Taylor, a highly respected member of the A. M. E. Church and wife of Mr. Frank Taylor, died Friday and was buried last Sunday. The People's Undertaking Company had charge of the funeral arrangements. There was a large crowd in attendance. The Pulaski High School is progressing nicely, having at present the largest enrollment since the separation of the city and district. It has a Latin class in the high school department of over twenty young men and women. Dr. J. L. Leach, the medical instructor of the City Schools of Nashville, gave the high school department a fine practical address on the 22nd instant. The school was also blessed on the 21st by a musical treat for an hour by the Murray Orchestra. Prof. Murray is a son of Prof. J. L. Murray of Springfield, On Sunday, Feb. 18th, the Y. M. C. A. met jointly the Y. W. C. A. at McKissack Hall. Overtaxed for seating capacity and many visitors were compelled to stand up. It was one of the largest audiences of its short history. The excellent music furnished by the Young Men's Orchestra was indeed a rare treat not often excelled. There was profound silence when Rev. Dr. Stephens introduced Prof. Wynn of Martin Female College to speak to the meeting. The speaker opened his discourse by prayer. "Arise, shine, for the light is come and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee." The orator seemed that he was one inspired by the occasion and for the occasion. The audience was carried away by his strong appeal for the truth, justice, humanity and zeal. The following ministers were present: Rev. Dr. Howard, J. M. Gentry, J. D. Sinclair and J. T. Bridgeforth.

TRIMBLE.

We are doing very well in our church work here. Our pastor was at his post Sunday and at 11:30 a. m. preached us a wonderful sermon from John 5:3, "Wilt thou be made whole?" Subject, "A Universal Hospital." He preached a fine sermon. Our hearts burned within us while he talked to us by the way. Our Sunday school is fine under the leadership of Brother Wesley Pierce.

CHICAGO (ILL.).

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gray, 829 North Franklin street, was thrown open on Wednesday evening, Feb. 21, in honor of the third birthday of the granddaughter, little Miss Genevieve Howell, daughter of Mrs. Johnnie White Howell. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns with Washington emblems predominating. Little Miss Howell made a charming little hostess. A two course menu was served. The many beautiful presents received attested the popularity of Miss Howell. Mrs. Gray was assisted in receiving the little folks by her daughter Miss Lena B. White. The guest list numbered fifty.

GORDONSVILLE.

The young people and members of the M. E. Church on February 21st stormed the pastor and his wife, bringing many choice groceries and money to the amount of $5.29. A "march" was also rendered. Miss A. B. Sanders conducted the same. We can address by Mr. Lee Whittier. The pastor responded. Mr. Bob Jenkins and Mr. Evans Young worked hard to make it a grand success. Many young people assisted. A solo was rendered by Miss Annie Engle. Mrs. Wm. Neal made some brief remarks. Rev. Neal and wife will be glad to have another such group of any time. The services at the M. E. Church were well attended Sunday, both day and night. Mrs. Jane Helm died after an illness of several days. Everybody should read the Nashville Globe.

CLIFTON.

We are having some nice weather here now and the health of the people is very much improved, but death has only visited our city twice this winter. Friday death visited the home of Mr. J. W. Williams and took away his wife, Mrs. Williams was a true wife, a sweet mother and a faithful Christian. She was a member of the A. M. E. Church and had been for a long time and was ready and willing to go to the Master's call. She would tell every one that she was ready to meet him. Funeral services were attended by her pastor, Rev. J. E. Edwards, and many friends. Death also came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sinna and took their three months old child. We are in deep sympathy with them. The funeral was attended by their pastor, the Rev. J. W. H. Barham, pastor of St. James M. E. Church, has started a ten days' meeting and one has accepted Christ and many have come for prayer. He is being assisted by the preachers of the city, also the Rev. F. Harrington. There is being some strenuous preaching done and it is having its effect, but we will not forget to mention the great sermon that was delivered by the Rev. W. M. Young for it did stir up hearts. Sunday at 3 p. m., Rev. Dixon, pastor of the Baptist Church, was sick and could not fill his place. The second Sunday, James M. E. Church are going to renew their personnel. The work will begin this week. A new roof is to be put on the parsonage and change its style, and a new yard is to be built. Rev. Young is still doing a good business in the laundry. Mr. N. J. Culp is doing a nice pressing business. Miss M. B. Mayberry, president of the Missionary Society, is pushing the work to the successful end. Rev. Barham has added three new members to his church in the past week. Rev. Edwards is making things for his quarterly conference, which will be the first Saturday and Sunday in March. Dr. J. W. Pickett stepped over and spent the night

Friday en route to Saffilo. Saturday night was a great time at the parsonage of St. James M. E. Church for a band of members of all the churches of the city went in and put as many choice groceries on the table as it could hold. Everything that could be thought of in the way of eatables was put on the table and even more has been brought since and many more will still be brought as they did not get in the band, but are determined to do their part.

PARIS.

The weather is beautiful and the people are very glad. So many have gardens already. The people of Paris are well pleased. We have with us Rev. Samuel R. Skelton, the world's greatest evangelist. He came to us on the 17th of February and on the most powerful sermons that were ever heard he is giving them. This meeting is conducted at the A. M. E. Church, but all the pastors and members of all the churches are in this meeting fighting sin. Oh, we are happy to see the union of the Christian family. The success is very great and we are still praying to have greater success. Our pastor, Rev. A. J. Russell, and the other pastors are doing all in their power to help the great man that God has sent us to have success. Oh, that the Holy Spirit may dwell with us as the great throng of people, white and black, come that the Holy Spirit may come with them. The men's meeting Sunday afternoon will long be remembered. The prayer service in the afternoon is saving from two to three souls. We believe the Christians are going to battle against sin till the devil will know that God still lives and he is soldiers in the battlefield that are fighting sin right and left and the victory will be for God and His people. We feel and know that Rev. S. R. Skelton is a real God-sent man for no man could do the good work that is being done unless he be sent from God. Our prayers are that success may always attend his efforts. This meeting will last throughout next week. The funeral of Mrs. Lora Howard was conducted Sunday at Mt. Zion Baptist Church at 10 o'clock. Rev. G. P. Woodson, the pastor, delivered the great sermon, as she preached her funeral. Mrs. Howard was a member of Golden Rod Church and was a charter member, also was the R. of D. for about three years. She was loved by all who knew her and was a devoted Christian woman. She also was one of the county teachers for about nineteen years. The Court of Calanthe had charge of the funeral. The members were all present to pay the last honor to their sister. Rev. C. H. Jenkins, W. O. Mrs. Johnnie E. Lee, W. C.

TULLAHOMA.

Sunday was a big day here; each minister was "out" at his post of duty. Rev. E. A. Martin filled the pulpit for Rev. Whitaker Sunday at 10:30 o'clock. He preached a noble sermon. Rev. J. W. Richmond is still on his job. Rev. Z. Hill of Nashville will preach at Mt. Zion Baptist Church on March the 7th. Mr. Sam Lewis is still sick. Rev. Wm. Jenkins and wife visited the sick Sunday. Rev. J. B. Marchbanks is in Lawrenceburg conducting a great revival. Mr. Logan Johnson is sick this week. Mrs. Bettie Hunt is sick. To keep up with the news of the race read the Nashville Globe.

ANTIOCH.

Rev. G. W. Gray our beloved pastor was at his post of duty Sunday and preached two very instructive sermons to the saints as well as sinners. At 11:30 o'clock he took for his text, Isaiah 43:1, the latter clause of the verse, "Let us come near together to judgment." His subject was "The Lord comfort the church with his promise." At 7:30, was, Acts 9:5, "Who art thou?" We are doing nice in Sunday school. Class No. 4 was very glad to get the banner back Sunday. Mr. H. B. Robinson visited friends in Nashville Sunday. Messrs. L. A. Collier and A. M. Kidd were in Rogers Rock Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Duley and little daughter visited their sister, Mrs. Joanna Graughn of the T. B. Hospital, Nashville, Sunday. Mrs. Curtis L. Bittis is visiting relatives and friends of Nashville. Mr. Wash Jordan is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Reed were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kidd, Sunday.

BELL, BUCKLE.

We regret very much to have to say that we are having quite a deal of sickness in our little town. Mrs. Carrie Couch is very low and Mrs. Mollie Carney also. Mrs. Barbara Pruitt, M. L. Stephens and Fannie Parker are sick, but we are glad to report them better. Mrs. Chester Gibson and children left Friday for Dayton, Ohio, also Messrs. Early Smith, Emanuel Ashley and Howard Bailey. Mrs. Eliza Swenson has moved back home from Alabama. Mrs. M. Moppin from Wartrace, was here visiting her mother last week. Masters R. T. Tillman and J. H. Johnson were in Wartrace yesterday. Mrs. W. P. Cooper has returned from Shelbyville. Mrs. Della Tillman, Malvina Cooper and Bell Nell were in Shelbyville Saturday. Little Wayman Cooper, Jr., is in Shelbyville attending the McAdams High School. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller has returned from Murfreesboro. Mr. Jack Miller left this morning for Nashville where he is expecting to work. The debate last Wednesday night proved a success. The subject was "Should a Woman Vote?" The affirmative side was the winner. Our Sunday service is growing spiritually as well as financially. Dr. W. V. Hawkins our true and faithful pastor preached a most able sermon Sunday, February 25, 1917, at 11:30 o'clock. His text is found in Psalm 94:3, "Lord how long shall the wicked triumph?" His subject was man's question and God's answer. He made his theme so plain that every man could understand him. Man asked the question, Lord, how long shall the wicked triumph and God answered it. The wicked shall be cut off in their wickedness. They will prosper only for a short while. Dr. Hawkins made such a beautiful illustration on the subject. I wish every human soul in the world could have heard him. Rev. Henderson of the Baptist Church also preached a noble sermon to his congregation at 11:30 o'clock. We have organized nine tribes in our church. Hills Chapel, we are getting ready for the summer rally. Bell Buckle will realize $500.00 in the rally this summer.

FLAT ROCK.

The Patterson Chapel Epworth League is making rapid strides to the front both spiritually and financially. There was an excellent program last Sunday afternoon. The topic was "Christ's power to keep us," and was discussed fully by the speakers of the day. Miss Beatrice Green, Mrs. Jimmie L. Hyde, Mr. Osborn Orar and Mr. Philip Brien. Come out next Sunday and be with us. An interesting program to be rendered. You will enjoy it. Our District Superintendent will be with us, Rev. Ellis.

ELIZABETHTOWN, KY.

Mr. and Mrs. James English returned Thursday night from New Orleans, and reported a most pleasant trip. Mr. Andrew Smith of this city appears to be dangerously ill. Mr. Bennie Starks and James Smith and others embarked for Bourbonnais, Ohio, Thursday night. Mr. Sam H. Harris member of troop C, the 11th Cavalry, which was badly demoralized in an encounter with the Mexicans at Carrizal, Mexico, has been honorably discharged and has now returned to see his people once in his safety. It is remarkable to hear young Harris tell of his narrow escape from the Greasers, his manly act and bravery should inspire other young men of Elizabethtown to want to do service for his country. Young Harris was badly wounded, having received a bullet wound in the shoulder, he was successful in escaping from his pursuers and after riding one hundred miles conveyed the message to his comrades what had happened. Mr. Joseph Garnett who went to Gary, Indiana on January 14th has fallen ill and his wife Mrs. Ora B. Garnett expects him to return home soon. Rev. F. A. Smith has accepted a position with The Mammoth Life and Accident Insurance Co., home office, 422 S. 6th St., Louisville, Ky. Rev. Smith is an old experienced insurance man, and many of his friends rejoice to have him accept the position once more. The Big Home Company should receive the support of every Negro in Kentucky. It has eleven thousand and one hundred dollars on deposit with the State Treasury at Frankfort for the protection of its policy holders, enough to stand, fall in, line. Miss Euphonia Owens of Nolin, Ky., is on the sick list this week. Mr. Frank Phillips while working for the Nolin Milling Co., was slightly injured by a weight falling on his foot.

UNA.

Mr. H. Cannon who has been suffering with pneumonia is rapidly improving. The writer of these notes was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vann Searcy last Sunday. Mrs. H. Searcy called to see Mr. H. Cannon and Mrs. Jennie Burnett last Sunday. Rev. S. F. Majors was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Searcy last Sunday. Mr. William Sublett employed at the State Insane Asylum was quietly married to Miss Ada Searcy on February 23, the writer of these notes officiating. Rev. J. L. Webb preached for Rev. H. H. Haring at the Baptist Church last Sunday. The 3rd Quarterly of the Brooklyn circuit convened at Paynes Chapel last Sunday. Rev. G. L. Jackson, D. D., presiding. Several friends of this community were present at the funeral of Mrs. Lou Hall. Mrs. Mattie Bradford continues ill. Mr. John Boyd is suffering with rheumatism.

FRUITVALE.

We are having some fine weather and the farmers are getting busy. Geo. Perry and Mr. William Davis of Belts, were visiting here Sunday. Mr. William Cole was quietly married to Miss Willie May Musgravy, Saturday night, we wish them a happy life. Mr. Claude Boykin and Mr. W. A. Barnett were the guests of Miss Leona Cole, Sunday. Mrs. Lillie B. Higgins and Mrs. Lizzie Long were pleasant guests of Miss Anna Cole, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Davis of Belts was visiting here Sunday. Death claimed the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Channie Cole a few days ago.

WILLIAMSPORT.

The farmers are quite busy in this community taking up stumps and turning the soil. Sunday being a beautiful springlike day, each service was well attended. February 22, the Poplar Creek school celebrated the lives of great and noble men, born in the 18th month, opening song, American. Invocation, Mr. I. C. Martin, song, Come unto me. Quotation from any author. Son, Columbia the Best of the Ocean. Welcome address on behalf of Prof. J. H. Kelly, ex-principal of Columbia High School. Miss Louise Russell, Recitation, The Message of our flag, Janie P. Greenfield. Recitation, Our flag, Emily G. Ewin. Recitation, Our Hero, Ottawa Greenfield. Pledge, Life of Geo. Washington. Miss Lou Teanie Williams. Recitation, Emma L. Fitzgerald. Recitation, Our Flag, Maud E. Greenfield. Song, Star Spangled Banner, by Misses Martin, Williams, Woods and Fitzgerald. Declaration, Master David Summers. Address, Prof. J. H. Kelly. His discourse was for the uplift of fallen humanity. Mr. H. C. Williams addressed was on the life of George Washington, his discourse was enthusiastic as well as instructive. Mrs. Haslin and Mrs. Williams, teachers, deserves much credit for the most excellent program. Prof. Kelly visited Mrs. Maud Walker's school. Friday of last week and gave a grand lecture to the same. Also Prof. Kelly was the guest of Rev. G. R. Norman at the A. M. E. Church and gave an able lecture, his words will live long in the minds of those who heard him. We are indeed glad to have such able men as Prof. Kelly in our midst, while here he was entertained by Mrs. Harlin, Prof. H. C. Williams and Mrs. and Mrs. W. M. Johnson. Quite a number of Kine Solomon's were in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Emma Dodson of San Francisco, 24th inst., she being a member of said order. Rev. G. R. Norman was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. James Church Sunday for dinner. The W. H. and F. M. Society was entertained by Mrs. A. M. Russell, Thursday of last week. Rev. Norman gave a grand lecture to the society on the duty as missionaries, also Mrs. W. S. Walker. Their words were gladly received by all who heard them. The meeting closed to meet with Mrs. M. E. Weatherston, March 1st, 1917. Rev. McMill filled the pulpit at Air-cook Christian Church, Sunday. His sermon was grand. See the reporter and subscribe for the Nashville Globe and read it.

MARTIN.

Sunday, February 25, was a glorious sunny day. The Sunday school at Oak Grove Baptist Church was largely attended. At eleven o'clock, Rev. R. H. Peoples preached a spiritual sermon to his waiting congregation at 6 o'clock the B. Y. P. U. held the usual meeting. The subject was discussed fervently. The president, Mrs. Mattie E. Roberts is doing much toward cultivating the young people's minds in the Scripture, through these meetings. All are invited to attend the B. Y. P. U. The 25th inst was Walden Day at McCabes, Temple, Dr. S. M. Utley of Nashville was with us he preached a wonderful sermon at eleven o'clock, every one present enjoyed the discourse. Everybody was glad to see Dr. Utley, as he is our ex-district superintendent and loved very much in the city of Martin. At three o'clock p. m., the celebration of Lincoln's birthday was observed. A large and appreciative audience assembled at the M. E. Church, the program rendered was quite enjoyable. After the rendition of the program the master of ceremonies, Rev. R. A. Dowell, introduced various speakers of the city. First, Mrs. Ella J. Cunningham in behalf of the Public School. Among the many good things she said, was that she is a friend of education and a daughter of Walden College. Rev. R. A. Grief was introduced and spoke in behalf of the A. M. E. Church. Bro. Ben Haynes in behalf of the C. M. E. Church, Rev. R. H. Peoples in behalf of Oak Grove Baptist Church, Prof. Dr. S. M. Utley was applauded to the stage and in his own way spoke with eloquence for twenty minutes, bringing to us grilling from Dr. E. A. White, president of Walden College. The choir under the skilled practice of Mrs. L. V. Dowell, rendered lovely music throughout the day. The male quartet, by Messrs. Carter, Waterfield, Sheppard, Phelps, was indeed fine, also a quartet by Misses Brinkley, Byars, Sheppard, Ralston. There were "bible songs." Mrs. Dowell is well informed in music and is doing great work with our young people in the choir. The Epworth League met at six o'clock, the topic discussed was enjoyed. Much spirit is in our League. We are still taking in members. Dr. S. M. Utley gave a short and interesting lecture to the Epworth League, "Analyzing the object of the League Society." Collection for the League 31 cents. At 7:30 p. m., Rev. R. A. Dowell presented Prof. S. M. Utley as speaker for the evening. His text was Matt. 11:29-30. Dr. Utley in his spiritual sermon brought out every fibre of his eloquence. It is a foregone conclusion that Prof. S. M. Utley is one of Tennessee's silver-tongued orators, we are indeed glad that the doctor was in our city. The collection for Walden, Sunday, February 25th, was $21.55. Miss Gertie Lawler is very sick at this writing. Bro. Pleas Clemmons, also, Mr. Robt. Cavett are indisposed. Mr. Ned Utley is sick. Two or three of our citizens have the pleasure of shaking hands with Dr. S. M. Strayhorn, Saturday, February 24th, he was en route for Nashville from Union City, where he had the sad occasion of attending the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr.

SHORT STORIES.
By Geo. W. Keeble.
SAME HERE.

Uncle Jabo, is a porter for one of the city's hardware stores, and helping his employer and some of customers to keep the red hot stove warm, chance to see one of the customers pull from his pocket a pipe of tobacco. "Whitefolks won't please give me a chew of dat' tobacco." The man after giving Uncle Jabo a chew of tobacco and then also giving him the once over, said, "fant' you income sufficient to supply your need?" "Yes sir; but it aint sufficient to 'sly half my wants."

LOADED UP.
On day while on my way to city, I met an intoxicated man staggering along the street. He grasped me by the arm seemingly to steady himself. "Well, what do you want?" "Nuzlin' nuzlin' 'all," the reply, "Got all I can carry now."

NO MORE.
A mistress who's cook was of Irish descent, came into the kitchen and asked (Just as the cook had finished the dishes, Bridget, "where are the scraps?" Bridget—"sure we have had any since the day our husband tried to show me how to make coffee."

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend to our many friends and neighbors who showed their kind sympathy and deeds of kindness to us during the sickness and upon the death of our dear mother Mrs. Mattie Lowe, also for the beautiful floral offerings.
